WELFARE OFFICER RESPONSIBILITIES

Child Welfare is the first priority of the Club.

The main role of the Welfare Officer is to ensure that all children and young people who belong to the Club do so with the appropriate protection and safety.

The Welfare Officer is to be CRB checked, and have attended an appropriate Child Welfare Course.

The Child Protection Policy provides the guidelines to be followed by all individuals associated with the Club. Specifically the welfare Officer is:

- To be the point of contact for Welfare issues.
- Ensure all coaches and volunteers are aware of and carry out their Welfare responsibilities.
- Ensure that all children and young people at the Club are aware who the Welfare Officer is.
- Promote good practice.
- Respond to allegations or suspicions appropriately
- Liaise with other bodies (e.g. Police, Social Services etc) where appropriate.
